

Photo Identification for Voting

All registered voters are required to show government-issued photo identification before casting a ballot at the polls on Election Day. Your photo ID must meet 4 criteria to be acceptable for voting purposes:

- 1 Must display your photo.
- 2 Must display your name and name must conform to your voter registration record. Conform does not mean identical.
- 3 Must display an expiration date and either be current or have expired sometime after the date of the last General Election (November 4, 2014).
 - IDs issued by the US Department of Defense, a branch of the uniformed services, the Merchant Marine, the US Department of Veterans Affairs or the Indiana National Guard are not required to have an expiration date.
- 4 Be issued by the State of Indiana or the United States government.
 - Examples: Indiana Driver's License, Indiana photo ID card, Military ID or US Passport
A student ID from an Indiana state school may only be used if it meets all criteria above. IDs from private institutions may not be used for voting purpose

If you are unable or unwilling to present ID on Election Day, you may cast a provisional ballot.

If you cast a provisional ballot, you have until noon 10 days after the election to provide the election board with the necessary documentation or to affirm you are exempted from the law.

For more information on photo ID, please visit <https://indianavoters.com>